

Statutory Auditor

POSITION SUMMARY

As a statutory auditor, you will interact with team to discuss field audit issues. Not only will you work independently, but you'll also collaborate with a diverse group of audit professionals. You'll use cutting-edge audit tools and technology. Other responsibilities will include:

Job Responsibilities

- Perform audit procedures related to clients' financial statements
- Supervise assigned staff in executing the audit approach and perform a first level review of staff assigned work
- Leverage advanced analytics, data visualizations and CaseWare tools
- Comply with auditing and accounting standards, relevant laws and regulations (including specific local and international laws and regulations), ethical standards, independence requirements and the audit firm's quality control procedures. Apply international financial reporting standards, GAAP, Ind AS and applicable reporting framework to client's financial statement.
- Utilize innovation tools to assess client data
- Provide excellent timely client service, deliver high quality work and strengthen client relationships
- Effectively work in a virtual environment
- Strong documentation skills and communication skills

Education And Other Qualifications

- A Bachelor's degree from a recognized university.
- A professional qualification such Chartered accountant, Certified Public Accountants (CPA) and Association of Certified Chartered Accountants (ACCA);
- Thorough knowledge of International Financial Reporting Standards and International Auditing Standards.
- Proficient in Auditing software.
- At least four (4) years' professional audit working experience.
- Experience with an internationally recognized auditing firm is an added advantage.

Preferred

- Advanced degree in accounting or related field
- Experience with internal controls
- Experience with a regional or Big 4 accounting firm
- Effective interpersonal and communication skills

- Proven leadership skills demonstrating strong judgment, problem-solving, and decision-making abilities
- Experience working in a fast-paced, team environment
- Experience working independently on multiple assignments or engagements
- Experience working independently on multiple assignments or engagements, even in a virtual environment